

COMMUNITY SERVICE REPORT

This Community Service activity entitled Students' Thesis Defense was carried at the IMS Khalifa Middle School which is located at Jalan Kampung Liyo No. 68 RT.2/RW O1, Parigi Baru, Pondok Aren, South Tangerang, Banten. As a Cambridge Curriculum – licensed National Plus School, such program was initiated by school management as a learning loss mitigation during two-year pandemic. In addition, the improvement of students' 21st century skills that are packaged in the implementation of Project-Based Learning needed to express in a form of students' real work. Therefore, the school invited Pietra Dorand, ITTJ lecturer who acted as an expertise person in the related fields (attached in the appendix)

Such community service was targeted to 24 students of 9th grade Junior High in the form of;

1. Providing invaluable insight in the creation and Reporting of Essay Writing Projects (Field Observations)
2. Providing scoring/assessment to participants
3. Conducting evaluations together with the in-charge project teacher team in a discussion forum
4. Publishing the community service results in a form of scientific journals/books.

The success of the program was indicated by the completion of English Essay Writing Project and the Presentations. Based on the observation, all students successfully accomplished their projects and conducted the presentations. As other matters in terms of pedagogical and psychological aspects were discussed along with the board of in-charge teachers. Eventually, the result of the discussion will be treasured for the upcoming research that might be benefitted to whom it may concerns.
